ON THE TOWN

I am not sure what the city is going to do now that sugarandsugar has closed its doors? Who will offer the likes of Colour of Life' charity cocktail celebrations? What other space will prove to be slick and hip yet warm and approachable? After three fabulous years of sugarandsugar parties, celebrations, and special events, the brothers are moving on in their ever-evolving quest for new adventure and opportunity. Who will fill the shoes of the Sugar brothers? Who will don the Yellow Jacket?

Visiting from Alsace France, Jacky Barthelme of Domaine Albert Mann was pouring some of the finest white during the Marquis Wine Cellars, 'Perfect with Sushi' tasting. Tojo's fish wonders were paired with 2002, 2003, 2004 vintages from this top Alsatian domain. An intelligent, informed crowd strolled out into a beautiful Friday night both satiated and yet light with knowledge.

Speaking of sushi, Shiru Bay Chopstick Café, doesn't just treat you to innovative Japanese culinary wonders; they offer it to you with a heck of a bang. Their 2nd year anniversary party was a generous spread that ended up keeping the Yaletown crowd way up past their bedtime.

33 million visitors and half a century of aquamarine wonderment, and the Vancouver Aquarium turns 50. Lorne Mayencourt joined some of Vancouver's establishment in honouring the Aquarium's Founding President Dr. Murray Newman and the future vision's of Dr. John Nightingale.

Thank you and farewell, Sugarandsugar!
